Yes, we’re back back back! Releases have been coming thick and fast and we’ve been neck deep in preparing the second edition of 7TV. So read on for all the latest Crooked news...

Miniatures

Army Section and Scientific Advisors

We have four more miniatures sculpted by Ernst Veingart for you this month - pictured above. Two packs of two pairs with the Army Section and Scientific Advisors suitable for investigating and repelling alien invasions! Both packs are £7.50 each or £4 per mini.

Harbingers & Paranormal Exterminators 2

The Harbingers are the inhuman servitors to some greater demonic power. Legend says that if the two should ever meet, then the world is destined for a disaster of biblical proportions. Real wrath of God type stuff. Grab the pair for £8. But that means business is good for the Paranormal Exterminators (£4 each or £11 for the trio), so they have recruited some help with three models and a new backpack (£1.60).
Coming Soon

Invasion of the Argonauts
Planned for a special release at Salute will be eight Mk2 Argonauts sculpted by Andrew May. Six riflemen and two unarmed Argonauts will be marching onto your tabletops. Each comes with two heads - traditional Argonaut and the alternate cyclopean helmet pictured above.

And not to be left out, the Mk3 Argonauts get an upgrade with some alternate weapon arms of trident, gladius, net, hammer and two bucklers.

Heroic Archetypes
As we gear up work on 7TV second edition, we’re trying to plug some gaps and provide models for all of the Archetypes.

Out in June are four heroic archetypes (l to r): Action Hero; Crackpot Inventor; Tomorrow Person; and a Strongarm - all sculpted by Ernst Veingart. Expect more in the Archetype range this year.

Stake night!
Want to bring vampires into your 7ombieTV games? Well this month you can and get a 25% discount off too.

The 7ombieTV Vlad’s Army 58 page supplement and 38 cards and 27 token pack are both reduced to £7.50, so go grab your crucifix and bag a bargain.
...And we’re off!

Playtesting of the second edition of the action engine has begun! Here’s a quick update and preview of what’s being put through it’s paces.

- Rules (centre) - this nifty 40 page playtest rulebook is B&W and landscape to help with home printing (remember these will be free!) and use with tablets.
- Countdown (x30) & Finale (x10) cards (left). These mark the turns remaining and provide the random events during play. 1/2 sized cards.
- Gadget cards (x20) (bottom left). Your favourite gadgets revised. Most casts should get a few gadgets each episode.
- Heroic Profile, Unit and Vehicle cards (top left). There are about 80 of these all in, with all the stats you need right there on the card.
- Villainous Profile, Unit and Vehicle cards (right). Same again more or less, for the bad guys this time.
- Mini reference cards (x8) (bottom right). Info on the turn sequence, statuses, weapon effects etc.

We’ll keep you posted on progress over the next couple of months, but things are shaping up nicely!
