YOUR CROOKED DICE NEWSLETTER

The X Factor

A slight hiatus, but we are back on track so here's a bumper newsletter covering May and June's releases - and there's a lot to cover!

Miniatures

Dr Hugo Solomon and Pandora King

Top Department X agents Hugo Solomon and Pandora King are back with all new sculpts for 2014 by Ernst Veingart! Solomon combines his gadgets and mental powers to overcome obstacles, while high-kicking unarmed combat master King prefers the more direct approach. Pandora King has her alternate X-Zero pistol on her base tab and Solomon comes with an alternate head. £4 each of £7.50 for the pair.

X-Commandos 1

Once Department X is committed, the X-Commandos go in. These models are equipped with body armour, Department X badged berets and either MP5 SMGs or SLR/FN Rifles. Rules for Department X and the X-Commandos are given in the Department X or combined Heroes Programme Guides. £3.25 each or £12 for all four.

Scharführer Eric Köhner

Köhner has turned his wartime ideology to the cause of S.H.I.V.A. He is a sadistic brutal and commander and leader, who thinks more of his attack dogs than he does of his enemies – and his men. Sculpted by Andrew May and available for £3.50 or £6.50 if bought with martial arts master Bolo.

Daughters of S.H.I.V.A.

The Daughters of S.H.I.V.A. have all new sculpts by Andrew May for 2014!

The Daughters of S.H.I.V.A. are orphans, stolen from their families by the unseen minions of the Guru. They are trained in the art of killing, and indoctrinated with a fanatical belief in the aims of S.H.I.V.A. They are sent on the most dangerous missions against the hardest targets – and they leave nothing but a trail of death behind them. Available for £3.50 each of £6.50 for the pair.

Transit Van

No matter your needs, our Transit Van has it covered. From moving furniture around, to filling it with a bunch of tooled up blaggers or cops, our van will suit your needs. These general all-round utility vehicles are great for Beat and Criminal casts, as well as being ideal if you need something civilian for your games. Complete with optional light and siren all for £15.

Wargames Illustrated - July edition

Keep 'em peeled for the July issue (321) of this illustrious periodical, as they try 'something completely different' with an in-depth look at pulp gaming.

The WI guys have taken a keen interest in 7TV and have included outlines and Cast Lists for two of our Salute 2014 games - 7TV: Cops and Robots and 7th Voyage: Sinbad and the Plaque of Destiny. You will be able to download the full scenarios from the Wargames Illustrated website.

Shows

Thanks to everyone who we met at Salute, Triples and Carronade - and for making those days a great success. We are booked for Skelp, Forfar, Crisis and Warfare in the autumn, so hope to see you there.
